Dear Dr. Rıza Tewfik,

I received your letter dated August 13th only yesterday. Will you address letters here as I am not up in London except when I have business during August and September.

I have also heard from Professor Broune that he is sending on my second letter to you. I think therefore that you wrote to me before receiving my letter containing the Introduction

12 from Sir Edwin Pears.

If you are to be at Cambridge for some time longer I will gladly come down and see you there any day you like. I could be there at 12.30 & stay till 2.45 or later if necessary. Of course however London suits me better as I have to return here every night.

On the other hand perhaps you will let me know when you expect to be in London. I could meet you at my club — The Royal Society

63 St James Street - at any time you see between 11am & 5pm on any day convenient to you except a Sunday.

after September 4th I shall be able to slip away from here but until then I have a friend of mine here who has just lost his wife & I don't like to leave him at night although I can always be away during the day as he goes out.

Is there any chance that you could pay us a short visit here before you leave England? This is a quiet place in the heart of the county about 2 hours from London fairly near Portsmouth.

If more convenient to you please write or speak to me in French as I understand everything.

Hope you will excuse my writing to you in English which I know is quite easy to you bread.

Hoping to see you soon.

Yours sincerely

/s/ Charles Woods

Dear Dr. Rıza Tevfik,

I sent you by post this morning a copy of my new book. I also enclosed a copy of the interview with Ismail Hakki. Hope that these things will have reached you before your departure from London.

Mr. Frew telephoned to me yesterday but he told me he had no spare time this week so I thought it useless to send you a telegram.

Hoping to see you again soon either here or in Turkey

Yours sincerely
