Your letter of 30th March, and the cable, which both I received today have made me happy. These pieces of news are very good. I was so waiting for a message from you. At present I hope to obtain the mentioned in your cable tickets any day. Thanks awfully. I don't understand what do you mean by "arranged bank guarantees". We shall have got tickets from Munich to Istanbul and back. Besides them we must to book rail-way return tickets from here to Munich. At least the way on the territory of West Germany (from the border to Munich) must be paid in foreign (transferable) currency. It amounts to 70 DM (about 27 dollars) for each of us. (Together 140 DM). As I have written you, in my last letter you can remit these money only by Bank Handlowy in Warsaw, ul. Traugutta 11, at our names separately. There must be an indication that it is for the cost of our journey. We have delivered visa forms to the Turkish Embassy. We had not the good fortune to meet His Excellency Kent. Besides there was not your visit card enclosed to your letter to Eva. Could you kindly let H. E. Kent to know that your friends are applying for visas?

A chancellery clerk has informed us that there is only the ghost of a chance to get visas this year. Nevertheless we are full of hope that everything will go well. The most important is that you want to see us at your home. What a unparalleled hospitality. We hope that we shall not outstay your welcome. We are also moved that the Ewa mother's death has so worried you.
Many thanks for your words of sympathy.
On the receipt of the tickets I shall write you immediately.
Ewa asked me to give you your hers kind regards. So did my husband.
Thanking you once more, I remain

Yours sincerely
Ewa
