Dear Sir,

I beg to enclose a note sent to me for you from Halide Hanum.

I much regret that I am not in town, but if you are staying until the 11th. of this month

I would propose your coming down to see me at my little cottage at Great Hampton, which is near enough to London to allow of your coming down for

The day. My address there is The Rectory Farm, Great Hampton, Great Missenden, Buckinghamshire. My nearest station is Great Missenden which you reach from the Great Central Station in London. It is only an hour's journey, or if you would tell me the train by which you proposed coming, I would meet you with a carriage.

If Thursday 12th. was a convenient day for you that would suit me very well.

It would be a very great pleasure to me to see you, or I hope that this proposal may be possible for you - Please come by a train not later than midday, so that you may have plenty of time with me -

Yours truly
Isabel Fry.

Dear Dr. Riza Tewfik,

many thanks for your kind letter of Aug. 17th. I was also sorry not to see you before you left London.
Mrs. Browne tells me that you are anxious to see me, when you are in London - on your way back to Turkey - in order to discuss certain matters with regard to the new school at Kendilli, in which you think ~~my~~ I might be able to give you ~~pleasures~~ ^{suggestions} or help.

If you think I can be of any service to you I will come up to London for the day or see you. Monday Aug 28th. would not suit me as well as either the Tuesday or Wednesday following (Aug. 29th or 30th.) but if it was the only day that was possible for you, I would try to make it convenient.

Please however let me know, as soon as you get this, which you would prefer.

I would suggest that you should come to my little house ~~At~~ 239. Marylebone Road. ^{to have our talk,} Please name the hour (not too early nor too late) which would suit you best for our interview.

I have no doubt you are much enjoying your visit to the Brownes. Mr. Browne will probably have told you of Halide Hanoum's having been in Europe for 4 or 5 weeks! I so much regret that she never let me hear of this, until it was too late for me to go across & see her as I do

Dear Dr. Rıza Tevfik,

I was disappointed not to meet you this afternoon after the session. But I suppose you must have been obliged for some reason to leave early, as I searched everywhere for you, in vain.

to-morrow, please look out for me, as I am most-anxious to speak quietly with you. And if we do not effect a meeting there will you ~~let me~~ come or see me here or one of the next two evenings? Please let me have a post. card to say when you will come.

I will in any case ask you to take a letter for me for Halidé Khanum, which I will send to you at the hotel , before you leave .

Yours truly

Isabel Fry .

Dear Dr. Riza,

It would be a great pleasure to me, if you are still in town if you or Bostani Bey will come & take tea with me to-morrow ^{(Sunday,} ~~to-morrow~~ (- I have delayed my departure from town until Monday -)

Please come at any time that is convenient to you, between 4 and 7 in the af-ternoon. Hajji Mirza Yahya is coming.

 I shall be so glad if, in this way, we can have some fur-ther conversation.

Yours truly

Isabel Fry.

Cher monsieur,

Je lis dans les journaux de ce matin que vous êtes à Londres, et je m'empresse de vous écrire pour demander les nouvelles de mon ami Halidé (Edib) Khanoum.
Il y a plusieurs semaines que je n'ai rien entendu d'elle et je crains que peut-être - voyant que le bureau de Sinin est fermé - elle ne reçoive pas plus les lettres que je lui ai adressé.

Si vous voulez m'accorder l'occasion de vous parler il serait pour moi une grande satisfaction, car j'ai le plus grand désir de m'assurer de son état. Voulez-vous me visiter ici, ou, si c'est plus convenable à vous je pourrai vous rencontrer à aucun lieu que vous me désignerez.

Veillez agréer Monsieur
mes sentiments sincères.
