My dear Miss Miller:

I am in receipt of your letter.

I will get in touch with Sefa Bey at once and find out when we can get hold of Dr. Riza Tewfik Bey. You can rest assured I will do everything I can for him, and, if possible, secure him some lectures.

I, too, was sorry to have missed you Sunday night, but I hope you will be on again soon.

Sincerely yours,

Geo. Plimpton

Mr. Plimpton was detained and did not appear at the dinner, so I wrote him ^{and at length} at ~~his~~ ^{length} about Dr. Riza Bey, + received the following reply. I also asked Miss Elmstead to speak to Dr. Duggan about him, + she said that she would do so at once. I think that the best chance for lectures of the kind which he has to offer is before academic audiences, & that therefore the best opportunities would be through Dr. Duggan's bureau, rather than through Feakins' Times Bldg. But after Dr. Duggan has been approached, we can consider the Feakins' agency, & I will help all that I can. I forget who is to approach Prof. Phillip Marshall Brown, do you wish me to write him? I should be glad to do so. And as soon as I get caught up with the work missed during my trip South, I mean to write Mr. Hittler at length about the whole matter.

Prof. Barnett Miller

I will make a resumé of the facts in Dr. Ryan's papers for future use.

It was nice seeing you & Mme Sefi Bey the other day.
Yours very sincerely,
Barnette Miller

My dear Dr. Riza:

I want to thank you for the Turkish book which you were good enough to send me. I am very glad to add it to my collection of Near East manuscripts. It certainly is a beautiful piece of hieroglyphy, and I shall value it highly.

I hope that we shall see you again soon.

With kind regards to Mrs. Riza, believe me

Very sincerely yours,

Leo Mumford

Dr. Riza Tewfik

My dear Dr. Tewfik:

It is good of you to write me about your plans, and I am very sorry that you are leaving New York - and still more sorry that I have not had an opportunity to see more of you. I presume I shall see your son-in-law, and he will probably give me data as to where you are to be permanently located.

I wonder if there isn't something that I can do for you before you go away.

With my very best wishes to you, and assuring you of my appreciation of your kind note, I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

Leo Plimpton
