Warnford Park,
Bishops Waltham.

Dear Sir,

I trust that you will forgive the liberty which I am taking in thus addressing you without first obtaining a letter of introduction. I do so because I believe that you are so soon leaving London and also because we have at least two mutual friends either of whom may have already spoken of me to you, as a matter of fact I have written to ask my old and intimate friend Sir Edwin Pears for an introduction to you and I also know Professor Edward Browne quite well. We should too have met at the Eastern Association Luncheon had I been in London then.

Between now and September I have to write a new chapter for the French Edition of my book which is going to appear in Paris in the autumn. I should so much like to have a talk with you about the latest developments in Turkey if you would honour me by appointing a place & time for a meeting.

I shall be in London on Wednesday next the 9th between 11am to 4pm & would meet you anywhere between these hours or if you are disengaged & would lunch with me at the Royal Societies Club (63 St James Street) at any hour convenient to yourself

I should be delighted to see you.

If you are busy on Wednesday perhaps we could see another day convenient to you if possible after this week.

Would you mind answering this to

The Royal Societies Club

635<sup>t</sup> James Street as I shall be leaving here tomorrow night or very early on Wednesday.

I hope you will forgive a letter written in great haste in English. If you prefer to 36

answer in French please doto.

Yours very truly
H Charles Woods

PS. I would like you to clearly understand that anything which you may say to me would not be published in connection with your name unless you wished it to be so published. I never quote my friends as they generally dont like it.

Dear Sir,

about a week ago I wrote to you to the Hotel Métropole but I think you may have left there and that my letter may not have reached you. I am asking Professor Broune to forward this to you.

I should so much like to meet you before you leave England. London would suit me the best but if that is not convenient for you I would come down to Cambridge or anywhere else that you suggest.

I am nearly always in London on Wednesday between 11 & 5 but could come up on another day if it suited you better. Would you lunch with me one day at my club.

During the next few weeks I have to write a chapter of my new book for the French Edition which is to appear in October.

Yours very truly
H Charles Wood
