Dear Sir,

With reference to our telephone conversation this afternoon, I herewith enclose your cheque for correction.

If you would be kind enough to put your initials against the word "Forty" and forward the cheque to us by return, I would be most grateful.

Thanking you in anticipation and assuring you of our best attention at all times.

I am, Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

Further to Mrs. Gokyay's visit to our Show-rooms this morning, when we had the pleasure of fitting the toile for her Persian Lamb Coat which was found entirely to her satisfaction, as instructed we are now proceeding with the Coat and would confirm the price of £315. 0. 0. (THREE HUNDRED & FIFTEEN POUNDS).

With reference to the arrangement with regard to payment, I have spoken to our Director and he is quite agreeable to your suggestion of paying a further £50 on the present balance of £250 on the despatch of the Coat, and the remaining £200 then to be paid by two amounts of £100 each during the next two months. I trust, therefore, that you will find this arrangement quite satisfactory.

May I thank you for your esteemed order, and to assure you of my best attention at all times.

I am, Sir,
Yours faithfully,

p.p. THE NATIONAL FUR COMPANY LIMITED,

F. Bleek
