I just received your new address from Selma today. I envy you your visit to dear old Baghdad. I used to dine at Hotel Maude, which I suppose is the same as Gia Hotel, on the Tigris River. If you should meet Mr. Knabenshue (the American Minister give him my salutations please). There was a faithful old Cavas Naoumi there, when I was in Baghdad and I wonder if he is still there? I hope to visit Baghdad some day - if this European war will come to an end before long. We like it here in Florida and have purchased the home shown on the opposite side. With best regards

My Dear Doctor, I am very sorry to leave Constantinople without having seen you again and without having the chance to accept your very kind offer to introduce me to Youssef Zia Bey and Mme Zia Bey. As I told you at the reception at Constantinople College I knew Mme Zia Bey when we both were children in the U.S. but she has doubtless long ago forgotten me though she might remember my sister now a Mrs Ludlow, who has three very fine little sons. I would have called long since but we have been away in the Black Sea visiting Constanza, Varna, Batumi and Trabizond in connection with relief work and when we were here I saw in the papers that you were again in the Ministry and very busy so I did not feel it wise to trouble you with my affairs. We sail today for America but I did not want to go without at least a note of farewell. Wishing you and Mme Tawfik Bey much prosperity and happiness I am

Yours Sincerely
