Dear Dr Kocaoglu

Enders Wimbush has asked me to write to you following his telephone conversation with your wife a couple of weeks ago, concerning the loss of a page of the manuscript which we recently received from you. Unfortunately, on receipt of your manuscript entitled:

National Identity in Kazakh Soviet Lyric Poetry of the 1960s and 1970s

we discovered that page 7 appeared to be missing.

Do you perhaps have a copy of this page which you could send to me as soon as possible? I look forward to hearing from you and to receiving a copy of page 7.

Yours sincerely
