Handwritten musical notation on a ten-line staff. The notation consists of rhythmic symbols (vertical lines with flags) and melodic lines (wavy lines with various ornaments and accents). The symbols are arranged in a structured manner, suggesting a specific rhythmic pattern. The melodic lines are written in a cursive style, typical of traditional manuscript notation. There are several double bar lines (||) used to divide the piece into measures or sections. The overall appearance is that of a handwritten musical score or a set of rhythmic instructions.

Handwritten musical notation on a manuscript page. The notation consists of several lines of rhythmic symbols and notes, including vertical stems, horizontal lines, and various symbols such as 'w', 'd', and 'a'. Some symbols are accompanied by small numbers or letters. The handwriting is in a cursive style, typical of traditional manuscript notation.
